Lora Haggard, Treasurer
United for Tim
815 1st Avenue, #114
Seattle, WA 98104

Dear Ms. Haggard:

On October 20, 2015, the United for Tim Committee (the "Committee"), filed a Special Report of Late Independent Expenditures two business days late. Therefore, I am imposing a penalty of $200.

FACTS

On October 20, 2015, the Committee filed an amended Special Report to include an expenditure of $45,000 to Screen Strategies Media for an obligation incurred on October 15, 2015.

RELEVANT LAW

Each person who makes an independent expenditure of $1,000 or more in the aggregate during the 21 days before an election shall file a special report by 4:30 p.m. the next business day. (SMC 2.04.270 A. 2.)

The Seattle Elections Code authorizes the Commission's Executive Director to impose late filing penalties of up to $150 per day for reports late-filed in the closing 30 days before an election. SMC 2.04.330 B through D.

LATE FILING PENALTIES

The Committee filed a special report of an October 15, 2015 expenditure to Screen Strategies media two days late. I am therefore imposing a penalty of $200.

RIGHT TO APPEAL

You may appeal this decision by submitting to this office, by 4:00 pm., November 24, 2015, a written request for appeal, pursuant to the Commission's Administrative Rule 4.¹

ACTION TO TAKE

No later than November 24, 2015, deliver payment, payable to City of Seattle, to the Seattle Ethics and Elections Commission at 700 Fifth Avenue, Suite 4010, P.O. Box 94729, Seattle, WA 98124-4729, or your request for appeal.

CONCLUSION

A major purpose of the Seattle Elections Code is to give the public timely access to the campaign finances of each political committee. Any delay in reporting inhibits this purpose and prevents the opportunity for scrutiny, to which the public is entitled.

If you have any questions, please call me at 684-8577.

Very truly yours,

Wayne Barnett
Executive Director
